>Today was a brand new day which means ash's summer holiday was over and today was the school day at PokÃ©mon Kanto high school, ash was getting ready for his first day, he was excited to see his friends again after the holiday.

Now he was walking towards the school, it was quite, when suddenly

"hey ash" he heard a familiar voice, one that he wasn't quiet happy to hear

"misty?" ash said

"hi ash, let's walk together to school, let's hurry so we won't be late for our first day at school" misty said and wrapped her arms around ash's arm

"Misty, can't you stop flirting with me, please?" ash said

"you know you want me to do it" misty said

Ash pulled his arm from misty and began running

When he finally lost her he began walking again only to hear another voice

"hey ash" he heard a familiar voice

"may?" ash said

May came and wrapped her arms around ash's neck

"how is my future boyfriend doing" may said

"I am not you future boyfriend, can't you stop flirting with me like that" ash said and run away

Then he finally reached the school

"finally" ash said

The school Bell rang

All the students entered the classroom (including ash, may and misty)

"Good morning students" professor juniper said

"good morning professor juniper" all the students said

"before we start, we have a new student in our school please welcome, serena" professor juniper said

The name serena rang a bell with ash

"could it be?... no, maybe it's an other serena" ash thought

Then a blonde girl entered the classroom, his blonde hair was not very tall but was attractive, her hair reached till the end of her neck, she had bright blue eyes, she wore a pink hat, a white shirt with a ribbon in the middle, and her shirt was covered with a red coat, and she wore brown boots

"it is her" ash thought

"hi I'm Serena, nice to meet you" serena said

"hi" all the students said

Misty and may realized ash was actually staring at this new girl they were filled with jealousy

"so Serena, I want you to sit next to ash he can show you the school, and help you till you get used to our humble school, you two will be partners throughout the year when we have an activity" professor juniper said

Once Serena laid eyes on ash she thought "it's him, it's ash" she thought, she ran towards him and hugged him and said "ash, I missed you so much"

Ash returned the hug and said "me too Serena"

Misty and may were surprised, because when ever they would hug ash, he would break the hug and run, they started to glare at Serena with jealous expressions

"so, you know each other? And from the looks of it you two were more than good friends" professor juniper teased

Ash and serena's faces turned red and broke the hug immediately

"we know each other from a long time but it's not like that" they both said

"It would be interesting to hear how you two met" prof juniper said

Serena's face flushed but nodded

"it all started when we were five years old"

flashback

A young girl was lost In the forest

"where is everybody, where did you all go?" the young girl said

Suddenly the bush started moving, a PokÃ©mon came out of it, it was a poling, it startled the young girl and she fell and hurt her leg, she tried to stand but she couldn't

"I knew I didn't wanna come to camp, I knew it, mooooooooomyyyyyyyy" the young girl said

The bush started to move again

Serena closed her eyes in fear

"poliwag where are you" a young boy said, then he noticed a young girl crying in the ground "hey, are you okay, I am ash, who are you"

"serena" serena said timidly

"what's wrong" ash said

"I hurt my leg" serena said in between sniffs "wow, this boy is kinda cute" she thought

"don't worry" ash said and pulled out a handkerchief "see this, this will make it better"

He the wrapped the handkerchief around her injury

"now, hear this, feel better feel better right away" ash said

Serena giggled, she tried to stand but she still couldn't "ouch, it still hurts, I can't stand up" serena said

"don't give up till its over, now come on" ash said and extended a hand

Serena stated at his hand for a moment, she started to move her hand towards it, ash grabbed it and pulled her a little bit strong, serena fell on ash, it was as if ash was embracing her

Serena pulled away and blushed

"there you go" ash said and smiled at her which secretly made her feel butterflies in her stomach

Then ash led her to the campsite hand in hand

end of flashback

"then we were tight ever since, we became best friends in this month we spent at summer camp and before the last day, ash gave me a ribbon as a gift for me to remember" serena said and pointed to the ribbon in her shirt while blushing

"oh, this is so romantic, it's like destiny brought you together again" dawn, ash's friend said, dawn was different then may and misty, she and ash were good friends and she never had a crush on him or something

Ash and serena blushed

"it's not like that" they both say in the same time

"sure it's not, I wish I could continue teasing you two, but we have work, go sit" prof juniper said

They nodded an sat in their places next to each other

Lunch time came

Ash and Serena were walking together to the restaurant

"oops, I forgot some thing at the class, I go get it and catch up with you" ash said

"OK, I will be waiting" Serena said

Ones ash was out of site Serena continued to walk to the restaurant

Then she bumped into someone, it was misty

"sorry, I didn't mean it" Serena said

"it's OK... wait it's you, great I have been looking for you, I am misty and I am warning you to back off of ash, he is mine" misty said

Then another girl appeared from no where

"yeah, you better stay away from him" may said

Serena blushed, "are you two dating him or something" she said with tears in her eyes

"no, but I won't let you date him" they both said

Serena felt relief, and her eyes weren't in tears any more

Then misty pushed Serena to the ground

Then a third girl appeared, she had blue hair and blue eyes

"what are you two doing with the new girl, this is mean, now go away and stop bullying people, or I will tell ash" the girl said

"no, don't tell ash, OK you win this time" misty said and they both leave

"hey are you ok" the girl said and helped her up

"yeah, thanks for protecting me" Serena said

"no problem, I am dawn, I am ash's friend, and any friend oh him is a friend of me, don't worry he is just a friend of mine, I don't like him or any thing" dawn said

Serena blushed and said "why would that worry me"

"oh, OK then, since you don't like him, I will just go and confess my love for him" dawn said

"no!" Serena said and her face became more red

"so you do love him, this was a trick to make you spill the beans" Dawn said

"ok, I do, but please don't tell him" Serena said

"no need to worry, friends?" dawn said

"best friends" Serena said and they shook each others hands

"so, when are you gonna confess, because from the looks of it, he likes you too"

"confess?... I. .. I. ... I am not so sure" Serena said

"come on, don't you wanna be his girlfriend, just confess when you feel it is the right time, just let me help you okay?" dawn asked

Serena blushed but nodded

"hey Serena I am back" ash said then he noticed dawn "hey dawn, so you met? That's great, let's go and have launch" ash said

"ok" they both said

They went to the restaurant

"hey ash, if you had a girlfriend, what would you like about her" dawn asked, she wanted to help Serena in being with ash, Serena glared at dawn angrily

"well, she has to be a kind person with great personality, like to have friends" ash said

Serena thought about it, she actually had all of these things

"what do you like when it comes to how a girl looks" dawn said, ash blushed, he looked at Serena for a second, luckily see didn't see, but dawn did

"well, I like bright blue eyes and short hair" ash said, "was that too obvious, I mean Serena isn't dense, I should stop giving her so obvious hints" ash thought

Serena almost screamed out of pure happiness but controlled her self

Then class started again

"so today, we are going to take care of PokÃ©mon eggs, so find a partner and take a egg with you at home and take care of it, when it hatches, the PokÃ©mon inside it is yours to keep" prof sycamore said

"hey Serena, how about teaming up with me" ash said

"ok" Serena said with a slight blush

"so, what PokÃ©mon egg do you want" ash asked

"how about Oshawatt egg" Serena said

"ok" they took the egg

Through out all of the school day misty and may were glaring at Serena, she and ash chatting about different things, till they agreed they will take care of the PokÃ©mon egg in ash's house

The school was over and all students were walking home

"Serena, mind if I walk you home" ash asked

"not at all" Serena said

They walked towards Serena house

They arrived

"no way" ash said

"what's up" serena asked

"we are neighbours" ash said

"that's good, so I will go get ready and come to your house, we will be sleeping together, isn't it great" serena said

"it sure is" ash said

"ok, bye for now" ash said

"bye" serena said

With that they both entered their houses

With serena

"hey serena, so how was your first day at school" grace asked

"it was great" serena said enthusiastically

"did you make any friends" grace said

"yeah, and an old friend too" serena said while blushing

"so, who is he, he sounds like an interesting boy, because I never saw you blush from a boy before, I bet you would make a cute couple" grace said

"MOOOOOOOM!" serena said while blushing

"any way, I have to go, I have a project with that old friend of mine, so, see you tomorrow" serena said

"you didn't even take my permission" grace said, serena looked at her sadly

"just kidding, you can definitely go, good luck on you date" grace

Serena blushed but ignored

With ash

"hi mom" ash said

"hi ash, so how was the first day?" Delia said

"it was great, so I am having a project with my friend so she is coming, is it ok" ash said with a slight blush

"of course ash, I've wanted you to have a girlfriend from a long time so this is my perfect opportunity" Delia said

"MOM, it's not like that" ash said

Then the bell rang

thats it, hope you like the first chapter, stay tuned for more
